

People who are special to me

Instructions

What to do

Step 1:

Think about all the different people who are special to you and what makes them so special. Record your ideas on Worksheet 1.

Step 2:

Create a set of awards for all the special people in your life. Ideas might include:

- The person who helps me the most.
- The person who makes me smile the most.
- The person I can always go to with a problem.

A certificate template can be found on Worksheet 2, or why not create your own? Once you have finished, post the awards to the special people in your lives to let them know you value them and are thinking about them.
